

YOUR BOUNDARIES ARE NOT MY BOUNDARIES!

What kind of social interaction would we like?

Respectful and appreciative behaviour that makes everyone feel comfortable.

This means:

- Considerate behaviour
- Expressing constructive criticism
- Being open to constructive criticism
- Respecting boundaries and taking them seriously
- Offering help to others
- Ask, don't just take

Further information: 'Antidiscrimination Directive of the University of Cologne' and the website of the Central Gender Equality Officer:

What to do in the case of discrimination?

Really trust your gut instinct!

Don't look away – look closely!

- Directly address boundary violations
- Talk about it – You are not alone
- Visit contact and counselling points.
- Take action even if you are not affected.

Contact points

AT THE DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS AND SCIENCE EDUCATION

Liaison lecturer of the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences:

FOR STUDENTS:

Dr. Udo Flegel

udo.flegel@uni-koeln.de
+49 221 470-4766

FOR EMPLOYEES:

Prof. Dr. Inge Schwank

inge.schwank@uni-koeln.de
+49 221 470-76601

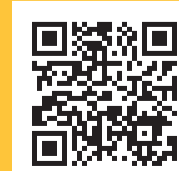

COMPLAINTS OFFICE FOR STUDENTS:

EXTERNAL CONTACT POINTS

Anti-Discrimination Office Cologne

Anfragen@oegg.de
+49 221 964 76 300

THAT WAS ~~JUST A JOKE!~~
Discrimination!